

NOTE: As this is a children's book, Media Predict has provided a limited amount of sample writing. At the bottom of the document, the authors outline future books for the series. – Media Predict

SKATEY KATEY

Written By: Dorothy Hamill & Ellen Levy-Sarnoff

Page 5

KATEY O'HARE had a dream.

Every night, she dreamed of being THE VERY BEST
ICE SKATER IN THE WHOLE WIDE WORLD.

Pages 6-7

She dreamed about doing amazing jumps...(Illus.)

Dazzling spins...(Illus.)

And winning lots of medals. (Illus: Katey loaded with medals)

She even dreamed she would win the Olympics... (Illus.)

Become famous... (Illus: Katey on a box of Carrot Crisps --Breakfast of Champions)

And appear on her mother's favorite talk show. (Illus: Katey w/Oprah
"Rabbit")

Pages 8-9

One morning, Katey's mother surprised her with a present.

Katey opened the box. "My first pair of ice skates!" squealed Katey.

They were white and shiny, and the blades sparkled like diamonds.

Katey hugged her mother and thanked her. She could hardly wait to try out her new skates on Willowbrook Pond.

Pages 10-11

At Willowbrook Pond, there were many ice skaters. Gliding and sliding, they all made it look so easy. (Illus: A variety of forest animals skating)

In the middle, a brown bunny was practicing her spins. She was wearing a beautiful blue ice skating costume that twirled around as she spun.

"Oh, Mommy, could I please have a beautiful skating costume like hers?" asked Katey.

"First, let's see if you really like ice skating," replied her mother as she helped her lace up her new skates.

FUTURE SKATEY KATEY BOOKS

SKATEY KATEY'S COMPETITION: Skatey Katey enters a skating competition and encounters a rival for first place --the bunny in the beautiful blue costume introduced in Book 1. But when rivalry turns into friendship, there's more at stake than a medal.

SKATEY KATEY BREAKS A LEG: When Skatey Katey breaks her foot while skating, she discovers there's as much to learn off the ice as there is on it. And wearing a cast can be a lot of fun.

SKATEY KATEY GOES TO THE OLYMPICS: It's almost a dream come true when Skatey Katey is selected to go to the Olympics to be a helper on ice. When she meets her figure skating idol, she learns more about what it takes to be a true champion.

SKATEY KATEY AND THE ICE SHOW: When Mr. Molokoff's skating students put on a show, they all compete to be the star and things go terribly (but hilariously) wrong. Skatey Katey and her fellow skating critters must learn the importance of teamwork to succeed.

SKATEY KATEY TAKES BALLET: To enhance her skating, Skatey Katey takes ballet lessons. She soon thinks she'd rather be a prima ballerina than an ice skating champion. What will help her decide her true passion?

SKATEY KATEY PLAYS ICE HOCKEY: When the Willowbrook Ice Hockey team, The Eager Beavers, loses one of its star players, guess who fills in—Skatey Katey. She discovers it's not easy being the only girl on the all boy-critter team. But slowly the team discovers that Skatey Katey's figure skating background is a great asset—their rival team from Heronswood Cove is in for a big surprise!